FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Continental Group Names Joseph P. Boldiga as Regional Director in North Florida

HOLLYWOOD, FL (April 11, 2011) – The Continental Group (TCG) proudly announces that it has hired Joseph P. Boldiga as Regional Director for its North Florida Tampa office.

Boldiga will oversee managing all association managers and relationships with clients. His focus will be large scale luxury communities, golf courses, and existing and developing communities in Northern Florida.

“Joseph has vast experience in large scale community management with an extended focus on golf course and large scale amenities,” said Mark Stoops, TCG Regional President, North Florida. “His experience and knowledge of the industry and long standing commitment of community support will contribute to TCG’s mission to serve the needs of its clients.”

Boldiga will join The Continental Group from Access Companies, where he served as Division General Manager. He brings 23 years of hospitality experience and well versed skills with operations management and strategic planning of hotels, resort communities, country clubs and multi-unit restaurants.

“It is an honor to join the leading property management company in Florida. I look forward to building long lasting relationships and utilizing my experience with this well respected company,” added Joseph P. Boldiga.
